

Jaisalmer — 3-Day Trip Planner (Highlights)

A 3-day highlights planner for Jaisalmer that captures the essence of the Golden City — from its majestic fort to desert adventures under the stars.

■ Image & Reference Links:

Place	Link
Jaisalmer Fort	https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Jaisalmer_Fort
Patwon Ki Haveli	https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Patwon_Ki_Haveli
Salim Singh Ki Haveli	https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Salim_Singh_Ki_Haveli
Gadisar Lake	https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Gadsisar_Lake
Sam Sand Dunes	https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Sam
Longewala War Memorial	https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Battle_of_Longewala
Kuldhara Village	https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Kuldhara
Tanot Mata Temple	https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Tanot_Mata_Temple
Desert National Park	https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Desert_National_Park

Day 1 — Golden Fort & Heritage Havelis

- Morning: Visit Jaisalmer Fort — explore Raj Mahal, Jain Temples, and the narrow golden lanes.
- Afternoon: Explore Patwon Ki Haveli and Salim Singh Ki Haveli.
- Evening: Relax by Gadisar Lake at sunset; dinner at a rooftop restaurant overlooking the fort.

Day 2 — Desert Safari Adventure

- Morning: Drive to Sam Sand Dunes or Khuri (about 40–45 min).
- Afternoon: Camel safari, jeep ride, and sunset in the desert.
- Evening: Overnight stay at a desert camp with Rajasthani music and dinner under the stars.

Day 3 — Local Life & Kuldhara Village

- Morning: Return from desert camp; visit Kuldhara (abandoned village).
- Afternoon: Explore local markets for handicrafts and leather goods.
- Evening: Enjoy relaxed dinner; optional folk performance at Desert Cultural Centre.

■ Practical Tips

- Best time to visit: October to March — days are pleasant, nights get cool.
- Carry sunscreen, sunglasses, and water — desert heat is intense.
- Try local dishes: Dal Baati Churma, Ker Sangri, and Ghotua Ladoo.
- Book desert camps in advance for Sam or Khuri dunes; check if cultural programs are included.
- For fort stays, choose eco-friendly accommodations (Jaisalmer Fort is a living fort).

■ Notes

Add personal notes, hotel info, and reminders here.