Day 1 — Arrival & Evening by the Lake

- Check into a heritage hotel near the fort.
- Evening: Stroll around Gadisar Lake and enjoy dinner with fort views.

Day 2 — Fort Exploration

- Morning: Explore Jaisalmer Fort — Raj Mahal, Jain Temples, and streets full of local life.
- Afternoon: Visit the Jaisalmer Fort Palace Museum and nearby havelis.
- Evening: Sunset view from a rooftop restaurant.

Day 3 — Havelis & Local Markets

- Morning: Visit Patwon Ki Haveli, Nathmal Ki Haveli, and Salim Singh Ki Haveli.
- Afternoon: Explore the bazaars — look for embroidered textiles, silver jewelry, and leather crafts.
- Evening: Attend a folk performance at Desert Cultural Centre.

Day 4 — Desert Safari (Sam or Khuri)

- Morning: Depart for Sam Sand Dunes; stop at Kuldhara Village on the way.
- Afternoon: Camel ride and jeep safari; watch the desert sunset.
- Evening: Stay overnight in a desert camp with cultural programs and dinner.

Day 5 — Tanot & Longewala Excursion

- Full-day trip: Visit Tanot Mata Temple (famous from the Indo-Pak war) and Longewala War Memorial.
- Return to Jaisalmer by evening.

Day 6 — Nature & Relaxation

- Morning: Visit Desert National Park — spot desert foxes and rare birds.
- Afternoon: Relax at your hotel or visit a café for local snacks.
- Evening: Optional visit to Bada Bagh for sunset views.

Day 7 — Leisure & Departure

- Morning: Enjoy breakfast, visit any missed attractions.
- Shopping for souvenirs before departure.

■ Practical Tips

- Best time to visit: October to March — days are pleasant, nights get cool.
- Carry sunscreen, sunglasses, and water — desert heat is intense.
- Try local dishes: Dal Baati Churma, Ker Sangri, and Ghotua Ladoo.
- Book desert camps in advance for Sam or Khuri dunes; check if cultural programs are included.
- For fort stays, choose eco-friendly accommodations (Jaisalmer Fort is a living fort).
